Day 1

Are you ready for fun and great beauty? Grab your camera; let's go!

Day 2

Explore, through audiovisual displays and hands-on interactive exhibits, the incredible story of the Great Lakes at the National Museum of the Great Lakes.

Day 3

Discover 359 years of history as you experience The House of the Seven Gables in Salem, MA.

Day 4

Take a back stage tour of the Ogunquit Playhouse, one of the country's finest summer theaters. See the Nubble Lighthouse during a cruise. Many shipwrecks occurred near the island before the lighthouse was built; the most famous being Isadore in 1942. After our step-on-guide tells you about Ogunquit, the beautiful place by the sea, we'll enjoy a real Maine lobster bake.

Day 5

Today we'll whale watch in Kennebunkport; enjoy learning about Kennebunkport from a step-on-guide, see the Seashore Trolley Museum, and sightsee at Goose Rocks Beach.

Day 6

View the picturesque Portland Head Lighthouse in Cape Elizabeth, learn about the quaint town at the Welcome Center, tour Victorian mansions, walk through the Portland Museum of Art. Take a 3-mile ride on the Maine Narrow Gauge Railroad along the lovely Eastern Promenade of Casco Bay, and enjoy dinner and free time in Cape Elizabeth.

Day 7

Twenty granite benches at the Salem Witch Trial Memorial tell a story of a time of fear and terror. The benches are inscribed with the name of the accused 14 women and 6 men executed as witches in 1692.

Day 8

The Merry-Go-Round Museum in Sandusky, OH, display artifacts that add to the public's awareness, knowledge, and appreciation of the history of the carousel.

Day 9

Homeward bound with such stories to tell! See you on your next Elite Tour.
