DEPARTING INDIANA: Ft. Wayne

$459/person double occupancy | $531/person single occupancy | $100/person deposit

Detroit was one of the final stops on the Underground Railroad. On this tour, explore the history of slaves who helped to find their way to freedom, the Civil Rights Movement, the airmen who fought in WWII, and the cemetery that is the final resting place for many African Americans who helped shape our country. Of course, the cuisine will be fabulous!

Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History - dedicated to exploring and celebrating the rich cultural legacy of African Americans.

Tuskegee Airmen National Historical Museum - honoring the first all African American fighter pilot squadron.

Plowshares Theatre Company - Preserves, presents, and produces African American experiences.

Second Baptist Church - Detroit Underground Railroad Historical Society - The oldest African American church in the Midwestern United States.

Elmwood Cemetery - A popular burial ground for African Americans - from those who were instrumental in securing freedom for people through the Underground Railroad network, to musicians, businesspeople, spiritual leaders, and others.

Nothing tops off a day like some of Detroit's favorite African-American-owned restaurants! Good Cakes & Bakes, Table No. 2, Savannahblue, Beans & Cornbread, The Block, Detroit Vegan Soul, and Red Smoke Barbecue.
